London, Oct. 11.—The Austrian Budget shows a surplus of 600,000 floring. London, Oct. 10.-The Rev. Dr B. Towett, Regins Professor of Greek in the University of Oxford, is in a critical state of health. London, Oct. 10.-Mr Tom Mann, late president of the Dockers' Union, states that the Dockers' Union numbers 40,000 members, 15,000 members, however, had left during the last two years. London, Oct. 10 .- The Standard states that the colonial stock market is very sensitive, owing to the great weight of undigested stocks on the market.

London, October 13 .- The Duke of Manchester, who was reported to be in a critical state of health, is now recovering. London, October 13 .- The attempt by the dockers on strike to block the Carron Wharf, with the object of preventing the employment of non-unionsists, has failed. London, Oct. 13. - The proposals recently made by the Hon. Thomas Playford in the South Australian Parliament with the view* of limiting the area of holdings, and rendering compulsory the sale of leaseholds, have caused alarm in circles interested in South Australian investments. It is rumoured that large withdrawals of capital from that colony are contemplated. London, Oct. 12.-Lord Rothschild and Eurl de Grey have been named trustees of Madame Melba's son, upon whom his mother has settled large sums of money in
